

WELCOMING THE REVEREND J.A. PANUSKA TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

(Mr. MCDADE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MCDADE. Madam Speaker and my colleagues, I am privileged to welcome to this Chamber the Reverend J.A. Panuska, and I want to thank him for his very inspirational words during this morning's opening prayer.

Father Panuska is one of the most distinguished citizens of our Nation, serving as the president of the University of Scranton in Scranton, PA, and I am proud to call him friend. We in northeastern Pennsylvania have been blessed to have him as a neighbor in our community.

Thousands of students, faculty, and local citizens' lives have been enriched both by Father Panuska's guidance and by the many deeds he has accomplished, all with great excellence. He is an extraordinary man who is well respected in the local community, the academic community, and the spiritual community.

Founded in 1888, the university he presides over, the University of Scranton, is recognized nationally for the quality of its educational programs and for the remarkable record of its graduates receiving Fulbright scholarships. Under Father Panuska's leadership, the university has been ranked consistently among the top comprehensive institutions in the Northeastern and Middle Atlantic States, and although much of his time has been spent on his favorite discipline, cryobiology, administrative duties, and many other responsibilities, Father Panuska's true interest has always been the students he presides over.

In 1998, Father Panuska will conclude his 16-year tenure as president of the University of Scranton and will celebrate the 50th year of his entrance into the Society of Jesus. With all of my colleagues, I know we want to congratulate him on his service, to thank him for his friendship, and to wish him the best of luck in his new endeavors.
